

CALL FOR PAPERS

FIR-PRI Finance and Sustainability European Research Award 2016 11th edition

The French Social Investment Forum (French SIF) and PRI are pleased to invite students and researchers to submit their work to the FIR-PRI "Finance and Sustainability" European Research Award 2016.

Why this award?

In 2005, FIR Award was launched to foster academic research on subjects in Finance and Sustainability. By building bridges between the academic and finance communities and their stakeholders, FIR Award aimed to promote practically relevant academic research and encourages broader disciplinary development of responsible investment scholarship.

Starting in 2011, FIR partners with PRI to advance a joint program to meet these goals. Aspects of this partnership are the development of an international resource database and coordination between the annual PRI Academic Conference and FIR Award Presentation.

Who is the Award for? Which categories are rewarded?

The award accepts submissions from students or researchers who either:

- hold a European passport
- have an affiliation to a European university or graduate school
- are collaborating with a faculty member who is affiliated to a European research institution
- have Europe as a research field

Submissions may be accepted in French or English

Four awards valued at €5,000.00 each and one research grant valued at €10,000.00 will be rewarded.

What are the selection criteria?

- Quality of research work and contribution to the topic of finance and sustainability
- Originality of subject study or approach
- Academic evaluation of research work
- Research work interest according to investors', corporates' and/or stakeholders' point of view

How to apply?

- Research projects must cover at least one topic related to Finance and Sustainability
- Make sure that the summary reflects the quality of your work since they are essentially what the Committee uses to select nominees
- Students must have completed and presented their work before April 15th, 2016
- Academic articles must have been published in an academic review with a proper reading committee
- For Master and PhD Thesis, a professor of your university or graduate school must back your application
- Academic Case Studies and MOOC must have first been implemented in an academic program during the specified period of time.
- For research grant, your application must be backed and overseen by a professor of your university or graduate school

Application process and Timeline

- Application deadline: April 15th, 2016
- Selection Committee: May 2016
The selection committee shortlists candidates based on the abstracts submitted.
- Jury: June 2016
The Jury reviews full submissions and selects a winner for each category covered by the Award
- FIR-PRI Award Ceremony: September 2016

Applicants must submit:

- Photocopy of ID, or a scanned ID
- Online Application form on the website www.fir-pri-awards.org
- Candidate's contact information
- Reference letter from a University professor, with an electronic signature (except best published article and Academic Case Study / MOOC)
- Copy of Master's Thesis, PhD thesis, Academic Case Study / MOOC or published article (electronic document)
- A summary of the Master's thesis or PhD thesis or the Academic Case Study / MOOC or research projects including explanations as to how it contributes to the topic of Finance and Sustainability

The award is open to students having completed and presented their Master's thesis or PhD Thesis between January 1st, 2014 and April 15th, 2016. Articles must have been published during the same period. Academic Case Studies / MOOCs must have been first implemented into an academic program between January 1st, 2013 and April 15th, 2016. The grants are available for all research projects sent in by April 15th, 2016 regardless of whether the research has just begun or whether it is ongoing.

Grants candidates are eligible for both European (FIR-PRI) and Global (PRI) awards and must provide the following items:

- Summary of research topic
- The project's contribution to today's existing literature on this topic

- Expected methodology and data: interviews, data base, etc
- Work schedule
- Present financial support and goal of the FIR grant funds

The quality and size of summaries are extremely important since they are essentially what the jury uses in order to preselect nominees (see rules and regulations)
